

RACING PACKAGES

Our racing package offers three options: MINI GP, GRAND PRIX, and SUPER GP. The MINI GP is an intense program designed for groups of friends or bachelor parties, efficiently utilizing track time for qualifying and the race itself. The GRAND PRIX is for the serious racer, maximizing track time for competition. This extra-long race starts with F1-style lights, and the winner is determined by the finishing order. The SUPER GP is a full-length 'Premium' race package, like a mini Formula One weekend. Track time is divided into three sessions: free practice, qualifying, and the race. Between sessions, there's a pit stop where participants can compare lap times and receive driving tips. The race itself starts with F1-style lights, and the winner is decided by the order of finish.

TEAM EVENTS

F1-themed corporate event

Team races are an excellent choice, for example, as a team-building day for staff or as an F1-themed corporate event. In the competition, participants are divided into teams of two or more, fostering a strong sense of team spirit and creating an atmosphere of collaboration. Like in Formula 1, the race involves pit stops—but instead of changing tires, drivers are switched on the fly.

Free Practice/Qualifying

The event begins with practice and time trials, giving teams the chance to get a feel for driving and practice pit stops and driver changes without too much pressure. The team's best lap time is recorded as their result for the time trial.

The Race

The actual race kicks off in Formula 1 style with a light start. The competition lasts for an extended period, where the ranking of the teams depends on both their driving performance and well-executed pit stops and driver changes. The first team to cross the finish line wins. After the finish, there is time to review the results together and move on to post-race discussions. The team competition is an excellent choice for many reasons.

It is a fantastic way to boost team spirit and encourage participants to engage in close cooperation. The race structure and pit strategies create an authentic motorsport atmosphere, making the experience even more immersive. Moreover, the team competition is suitable for everyone—it is designed to provide enjoyable activities for both first-timers and more experienced karting drivers alike.
